Dinner to follow

Officers: Warder thru Commander Required.
Division members are excused from this rehearsal.

Sir Knight:

I hope this notice finds you and your loved ones well. In December, Boston Commandery #2 held its annual Christmas Observance. With over 140 Sir Knights, ladies and guests in attendance, this observance, truly exemplified the true spirit of the holidays. As our Prelate said in his Christmas prayer, the holidays bring together family and even though the holidays pass and the family disperses, may we all resume our labors with the spirit of fraternity and peace in our hearts.

Now, in the spirit of Emmanuel, the Prince of Peace, we again enter a new year. In that new year, Boston Commandery #2 will again begin the Orders. In January we will confer the Orders of the Red Cross and Malta in short form on all those Companions eligible. I encourage you to support our new members with the warmth and spirit you showed during the holidays.

In his service,

S. Michael Yarosh

We continue to improve the website. For those Knights who have internet access, please use the website as the primary way to make dinner reservations. It is the most efficient way to ensure proper headcount for the caterer.
